

around town

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hettstrom of Church Street are parents of a first child and daughter, Erica Lee, born March 11 at St. Margaret's Hospital. Grandparents are the John W. Bernards of Braintree and Mrs. Rose M. Hettstrom, also of Braintree.

Rya Zobel of Jerusalem Road has been confirmed by the U.S. Senate as the first woman to sit in the Federal Court of Massachusetts, and the 13th woman ever confirmed by the Senate as a Federal Judge. Mrs. Zobel is a graduate of Radcliffe and a member of the fourth graduating class of Harvard Law School that admitted women. She is in private law practice with the Boston firm of Goodwin, Proctor and Hoar, and gained her courtroom experience serving as law clerk for Federal Judge George Sweeney.

The League of Women Voters held its annual legislative reception at the Beach St. home of Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey Power. President of the LWV Doris McNulty introduced State Senator Allan McKinnon, State Rep. Mary Jeanette Murray and Selectman Arthur Clark and Henry Ainslie.

A "Spring Fling" fashion show and dessert was held by the PM Club at St. Paul's School hall in Hingham. Fashions were presented by Classics of Cohasset.

Town Counsel Blake Thaxter reported that his blue and white Boston Whaler, serial #MSS5792 was stolen from Parker Avenue, near the town float.

Rita Burke is in Washington D.C. for a celebration to mark the seven-year expiration date of the time allowed for the Equal Rights Amendment passage. Mrs. Burke will attend a dinner honoring Phyllis Schlafly, national head of Stop ERA.

Henry Desmond was named a top real estate broker in the Jack Conway organization for the month of Feb. He is part of a group of producers who added up sales of $14 million for the first two months of 1979.

Mrs. Helen Pratt, an instructor in physical education at the Joseph Osgood School, led the classes of Miss Baush, Mrs. Piepenbrink and Miss Flynn in a display of gymnastic skills, to which the parents were invited.

JUST HORING AROUND in the sunny spring weather is Lee Praffmann, 15, aboard her mount Marian near her Sohier St. home.

(Derr photo)

Last week Brownie Troop 616 was conducted on a tour of the bell tower of St. Stephen's Church by carillonneur Earl Chamberlain. Led by troop leaders Diane Cline and Jayne Nussdorfer, the youngsters saw how the carillon is played. Brownies participating in the tour were Julie Nussdorfer, Kimberly and Kara Cline, Cindy and Debbie Dormer, Maura and Karen Atkinson, Diana and Alison Kornet, Suzanne DeCruz, Nancy Riley, Beth Collins, Jennifer Winn and Michelle Migliaccio.

The Family Forum of the South Shore has been organized in Cohasset to educate its members and the general public on matters affecting women and their families. This group is the local chapter of the W's Inc. of Fort Worth Texas, and meetings are held the last Tuesday of every month at 8 p.m. in the Cushing Room of the Rockland Trust Bank.

Gail Bryan won honors in photography for her picture "Matriarch, Nepal," and Tom Lucas received the drawing award for "Dunes" at the Spring Festival of the South Shore Art Center on Ripley Road.

State Rep. Mary Jeanette

Murray has received numerous local calls concerning the noise level of planes in the changing conditions of landing and takeoff patterns of Logan Airport. She has requested an economic impact study by the FAA on noise pollution over Cohasset and surrounding towns.

Miss Duffy of Fair Oaks Lane was given a surprise birthday brunch by his wife Rosee. Attending the party were Marilyn and Dick Fessler, and Gwen and Jack Dickinson who will soon be moving to Chicago.

Architects are completing plans for a proposed Sailing Club building on Government Island. The drawings will be on display in Commodore Edward Atkinson's office, who noted the Club has been organized for 17 years and offers sailing lessons each summer. "We give proper access to the water and safe use of it," he said, as he encouraged interested families to join the Sailing Club.

Susan Buckley, a junior, and Edward Donnelly, a senior at CHS, are exhibiting their art work at the John Hancock Tower lobby in Boston, as part of the observance of Youth Art Month. Their art work was selected by the Art Department of the high school to highlight the important influence of art for all students.

Gerry Studds recently attended a brunch honoring State Representative Phil Johnson. Two hundred people attended the quiche, salad and champagne luncheon.

Chris Colocousis, a senior at CHS, and son of Mr. and Mrs. John Colocousis of Windy Hill, has been accepted at Stonehill College in N. Easton, Mass.

THE BIG BURGER

1/2 lb. ground rounder with steak fries and cole slaw.

Braintree: Kings Plaza, Braintree Five Corners, 848-4848.
Norwell: Rte. 228 at Exit 30 off Rte. 3 (West of Queen Anne's Court), 878-9830.
Cohasset: 156 King St., Rte. 3A, 383-9676

Some of the best things in life require a loan.

We can give you a loan for a vacation, new car, home improvement, or anything else that's special to you. And we can approve it quickly. Which is important, because unfortunately, many of the best things in life are getting more expensive all the time.

South Shore Bank

Call 472-1000

Member FDIC

Pamela's Place

Spring Fashions Are Here!

Come in to see our selections of Villager, Dorothy Z. Lanz, Emily and Colorful prints by Malia.

Herring Brook Hill
707 Main Street
Norwell

Hours Mon-Sat 10-6

659-4700

Master Charge VISA